24th August 1955] [Sri M. A. Manickavelu]

for hundreds of years. Therefore, I would say that having this legislation as a sort of guard, there is scope for adjusting the relationship between the landlord and the tenant. With these words, I thank the hon. Members for all the suggestions that they have made and I hope the legislation will fulfil the purpose for which it is intended. I move that the Bill be passed into law."

DEPUTY SPEAKER :—" The question is—

'That the Madras Cultivating Tenants Protection Bill, 1955 (L.A. Bill No. 11 of 1955), as amended, be passed.'"

The motion was put and carried and the Bill as amended was passed.

DEPUTY SPEAKER :—" May I know whether we can take up the next Bill? If Members have no objection, the Hon. Minister for Revenue can move the motion that the Madras City Tenants Protection (Amendment) Bill be taken into consideration."

THE HON. SRI C. SUBRAMANIAM :—" The whole thing may be taken up to-morrow."

DEPUTY SPEAKER :—" The House will now adjourn and meet again at 8-30 a.m. to-morrow."

The House then adjourned.
